Quartette

Since their debut in 1993, the four members of Quartette have been both publicly and critically acclaimed for their lush harmonies and delightfully diverse repertoire. Cindy Church, Caitlin Hanford, Gwen Swick, and Sylvia Tyson are seasoned singer/songwriters whose influences range from blues and gospel to country and folk to jazz and pop. The most recent of their six recordings is "Down At The Fair" with legendary musician/producer Colin Linden. An evening with Quartette is always a magical musical journey.
